Ruth's story comes at a crucial place in the biblical narrative. The book of Judges, which comes right before Ruth, ends with inter-tribal conflict and these words: "In those days . . . all the people did what was right in their own eyes." (Judges 21:25) The people of God, were denying the Law God gave to them. A Law meant to promote life, life with God and life in community. In contrast we now get the story of Ruth, a woman and a foreigner, which is a tale of belonging, about blessing, and about faithful love, God's faithfulness, incarnated in human beings.

Prelude

Ring of the Bells

Welcome

Hymn: ELW 801 - Change My Heart, O God, sing 2 times

Confession and Forgiveness

All may make the sign of the cross, the sign marked at baptism, as the presiding minister begins.

Blessed be the holy Trinity, ✙ one God,
the God of manna,
the God of miracles,
the God of mercy.

Amen.

Drawn to Christ and seeking God's abundance,
let us confess our sin.

Silence is kept for reflection.

God, our provider,
help us.

It is hard to believe there is enough to share.

We question your ways when they differ from the ways of the world in which we live.

We turn to our own understanding rather than trusting in you.

We take offense at your teachings and your ways.

Turn us again to you.

Where else can we turn?

Share with us the words of eternal life and feed us for life in the world. Amen.

Beloved people of God:

in Jesus, the manna from heaven,
you are fed and nourished.

By Jesus, the worker of miracles,
there is always more than enough.

Through Jesus, ✙ the bread of life,
you are shown God's mercy:

you are forgiven and loved into abundant life.

Amen.

Greeting

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all. And also with you.

Prayer of the Day

Lord we are your people, washed in the waters of baptism, named there as your children. Yet, we acknowledge before you that we are also a broken people in need of healing. We are sinners in need of forgiveness and renewal. Clothe us in your loving faithfulness that we may be revived as individuals and as a community of faith so we may boldly glorify you by embodying your faithful love to all. In the name of Jesus we pray, through the power of the Spirit and for the sake of your world. Amen
